As young falcons we entered Fermi High School which became our nesting place for four years. We gained knowledge from our faculty while fellow students supported us with their friendship. As our senior year closes we are getting ready to leave the nest. We have a new maturity combined with new found wings of self confidence. These attributes will help to carry us to new heights which we never thought attainable.

"Harvard is how much?" says senior Anang Majmudar to guidance counselor, Mr. Occhuiti.

Senior Sam Buss displays her juice box as well as Vanna White would.

Carolyn Draus and Liz Halal are two of the few students who can smile before critical writing.

Senior Todd Tobey knows that he's loved in the cafeteria. Who wouldn't with hugs like this from Angie?

Does anyone enjoy being lectured by guidance counselors? Chris Fontaine appears to be thinking about what Mr. Shea is saying.

Mr. Depino's fifth period Physics class takes a break to strike a pose.

This year, there are five foreign exchange students here at Fermi, and for the first time, all of them are female! They are Tomoko Kayama and Yoshie Abe from Japan, Africa Villanueva from Spain, Silvia Galiasso from Venezuela and Carolina Sperb who is from Brazil. An interview with them led to some interesting comments on the similarities and differences between their home schools and "life at Fermi."

They all agree that there is a big difference between attending Fermi and their schools back home. Both Yoshie and Tomoko are surprised at how close the school is to home. "It is a big switch to take the bus to school rather than a train," says Yoshie. They also agree that school rules in Japan are much stricter than the rules at Fermi. On the other hand, Africa, Carolina and Silvia all agree that there was much more freedom in their home schools than here at Fermi. "Back home if I don't feel like going to a class, I don't have to go" says Carolina. Africa echoed that comment when she said that "sometimes school is a little bit more difficult here because we are not able to miss any classes."

All five agree, however, that they enjoy it here because of the experiences that they are having while meeting new friends. They all say that "students are students" and are equal in all countries. Because of that, they have made new friends quickly. Tomoko thinks that "Americans are very friendly and kind. And they look older than they really are!" Africa has found that "American boys with red hair and a wonderful smile are attractive!" Carolina and Silvia say that Americans are "very friendly and always smiling!" They also believe that all the students and the teachers at Fermi are "trying their best to make us feel welcome."

And we do, indeed, welcome our new friends to Fermi.

The money is in safe keeping under the watchful eyes of Paul Cooney and Tom MacDonald.

To take a break from the crowded halls, Kristen Pelletier visits the office.

Chuck Dustin is busily working in the main office.

Caught in the middle of a conversation, Dave Sibella, Jason Howland, Dan Trumble, and Rob Duperre smile slyly for the camera.

Dear Classmates:

During our four years of high school we have watched as the world around us changed. We saw the Berlin Wall come down, we cheered our troops in the Persian Gulf, and we stood in strong support of democracy as it swept through other nations. We, too, changed and made our own history as a class.

The Class of 1992 will be remembered as one of the most intelligent and spirited classes to pass through Fermi's doors. And as high school comes to a close, we must cherish the fond memories we have created throughout the years. We will reflect on the friendships we have made, the good times we have shared, and the obstacles that we have overcome. But it is the education we have obtained here at Fermi which is the key that will open the many different doors that are in our future.

It is now time to close the door to Fermi and move on to a new beginning, knowing that the years we've shared are something special and will not be easily forgotten.

Best wishes,
Chris Pohorylo

DEDICATION

Dr. Louis Mager
Superintendent of Schools

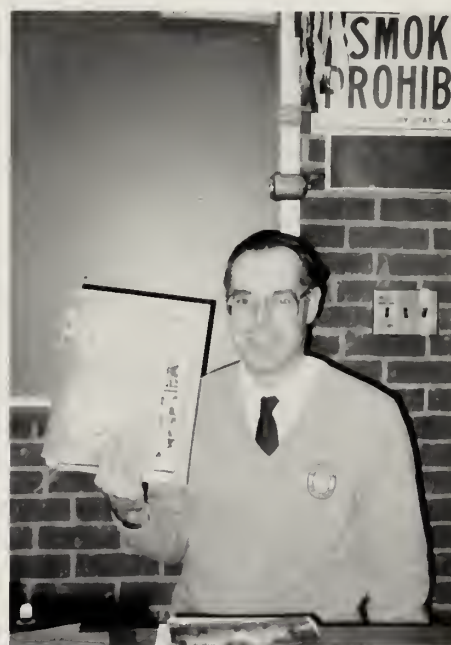

The Class of 1992 dedicates its yearbook, Traces '92, to Dr. Louis Mager for his years of service to this community. Dr. Mager, who has faced many problems ranging from budget cuts to school overcrowding, has worked diligently to give students a diverse, rewarding education. Thus this class, which has sampled all that has been offered and leaves to build upon that education, would like to thank Dr. Mager for supporting the variety of educational experiences that exist at Fermi High School. We would also like to thank him for keeping our school system in the forefront of education even in these trying times.

To the Senior Class:

As I begin to put together some thoughts on the past four years, I can't help but think of the world-wide events that have shaped today's society and have impacted the lives of all of us. Once again, a world in turmoil has led Americans to the front lines of battle, this time with a resolute victory.

These events, believe it or not, are an important part of your personal history. As many of us remember where we were on the day President Kennedy was assassinated, so will you remember the day of Operation Desert Storm. Remember the day, and remember the lessons of war.

Take these events of history, take the roots of your education gained here at Fermi, and make the world a better place for all of us by your continued efforts and your striving for excellence, equality and peace.

From all of us on the Fermi Staff we wish you the very best.

Sincerely,

William S. Cutler

Observations

Mr. Marr observed that the members of the Class of 1992 "have spirit and are fired up," when queried as to the most favorable characteristics of the class.

When asked the most difficult part of his job, Mr. Askin responded, "explaining to parents why their son/daughter is being suspended."

"Being a part of the growing process of the students and seeing the smiles on Moms' and Dads' faces at graduation," was Mr. Ross' response to the question concerning his favorite aspect of being an assistant principal.

The kindness and love that we have found in our school nurses tops any definition of "nurse" to be found. Their outstanding knowledge and years of experience qualify Mrs. Demers and Mrs. Wilcox to care for any ill person walking into their office. But beware fakers. These women can smell a faker a mile away. It'll be their decision to let you get away with it or not.

It is agreed by both nurses that they have an advantage over other staff members because the kids are always nice when they walk into the office. They're always nice when they want something. These women love their jobs and see themselves at Fermi for many years to come. Thank you, Mrs. Demers and Mrs. Wilcox, for showing us affection and motherly care when we need it.

Fermi Facts

The secretaries and aides who help keep the school running smoothly are an experienced group who have 177 years of combined service to the Enfield Schools. Mrs. Evans has been a secretary in the Enfield system for 29 years. Mrs. Stolinis is next highest with 26 years, Mrs. Gates has 23 years, and Mrs. Schulthess, who retired this year had 24 years of service. We appreciate the expertise and helpfulness of the support staff who work with us every day.

The Fermi Faculty is a knowledgeable group who have taught a total of 2,108 years, 1,809 of them in Enfield. They teach for a variety of reasons and they all care about their students.

"Why teach?" I can't imagine doing anything else and I knew in 6th grade this was what I wanted. I feel fortunate to be able to share my enthusiasms for physical activity with such a positive student population. — Miss Sullivan

It's meaningful. It's one of the only professions we know that directly affects youth, and that can influence thought. — Mrs. Raposa

It's never boring! — Mr. Connors

It's "intrinsically relevant." — Mr. Rago

A day of teaching is a lot like a hard run . . . it takes a lot of hard work and energy, but in the end there is a great feeling of success and accomplishment. — Mrs. McCarthy

J.V. Girls' Soccer

The Fermi girls' J.V. Soccer team maintained their consistent growth record with their best overall season finishing at 4-6-2. They gave South Windsor an exciting battle as they lost the final game of the season 2-1. Seniors Crista Leo, Tina Laponese and Amy Warner constantly led this very young Falcon squad.

The biggest win of the season came when Fermi beat Windham for the first time 3-1. This spirited group jelled into a cohesive unit over the course of the season, and they show great promise for the future of Fermi girls' soccer.

Sophomore Michelle McGonagle was selected for this year's "Most Improved Player" award. Coach Uricchio is very pleased with the improvement the team has shown in its skills and technical development.

Something for Everyone

Clubs are created at Fermi whenever people share common interests.

The Literary Magazine is an annual print-out of Enrico Fermi students' literary works. With the assistance of the club's advisors, Mrs. Heffernan and Mrs. Bueker, the students work hard to put the collection together each year. The pieces have to initially be chosen, then revised and edited. The last step in the process is the final printing of the magazine. One glance at the magazine showed vividly the effort that students and advisors put into it.

1991-92 marked the introduction of a Billiards Club at Fermi High School. The group met once a week at Pool Table Magic in Enfield where the members improved their skills and polished their game.

The Golf Club met at Grassmere after school one day a week during the fall to play nine holes and take a lesson afterwards. Anyone Interested in golf is welcome to join.

The lure of classic cars enticed several students to join Mr. Chapman in the Auto Restoration Club. This year they worked on restoring a '41 Ford and a '71 Malibu.

Kneeling: Jeff White, Melissa Flaherty. Standing: Craig Mikullitz, Keith Brown, Nate Bourgault, Mr. Chapman.

CAVE

Companies of Alternative Vocational Education is a student managed business which exposes students to a variety of job simulations. They advertise and accept orders to print and monogram various paper products such as napkins, plates, cards, and pencils. These orders are all custom designed, packaged, and delivered. Another job responsibility of this organization is all bulk labeling, packaging, and mailing for Fermi High. Students also duplicate material as ordered. These are returned, collated as specified. Finally, CAVE is responsible for all recycling of paper products for the high school.

CHEMISTRY CLUB: FORMULAS, FACTS AND FUN

The Chem Club has been an active organization of about fifteen members this year. One member is an AP Chemistry student from Somers High who drives over to take part in our activities. A typical day would find us involved with making small chemical rockets, investigating various colorful oscillating reactions, synthesizing pleasant smelling esters, devising novel chromatography sprayers, or perhaps, carefully touching small bit of nitrogen triiodide with a ten foot pole and noting the amazing sensitivity it has to touch. If it glows, changes color, flames, smells, or explodes, we are interested in it.

P.O.P.S. Power of Positive Students Power of Positive Staff

The P.O.P.S. program at Fermi is designed to help promote academic and personal success through the development of positive attitudes and high self-esteem. A major component of the program is the recognition of positive behavior and achievement. At Fermi the P.O.P.S. display cases feature a plethora of photos, news clippings and awards which illustrate the many and diverse accomplishments of the Fermi Family. This year's exhibits included "Students of the Month" Awards, spirit banners, thematic display, and photos of classroom and club activities, sporting events, and concerts.

P.O.P.S. advisor Mr. Yankee helped keep spirits high with numerous contests (followed by munchkins or pizza): Homeroom Spirit Photo Contest, Fermi Fight Song Contest, Homeroom Pool Contest, Homeroom Academic Contest, and Attitude Boosters Contest. In addition, P.O.P.S. and Student Senate combined to sponsor the highly successful "Pencils for Ocotol" Homeroom collection.

Throughout the year, Mr. Yankee and his P.O.P.S. students photographed Fermi athletic teams and school events sponsored by other Fermi clubs. Several students volunteered valuable assistance in carrying out various projects. Paul Cooney, Tom MacDonald, Paxton Heckman and Michelle Libby donated many hours each month to the P.O.P.S. program, creating displays, copying notices, stuffing mailboxes and posting photos. The efforts of all student helpers were greatly appreciated.

Perhaps most importantly, the P.O.P.S. displays helped generate feelings of pride in our efforts and accomplishments, and served to recognize the wonderful achievements which resulted from the combined efforts and talents of the students, staff, parents and volunteers. This year's record of triumphs serve as a testimony to the dedication, hard work, commitment, enthusiasm, cooperative nature, friendship, caring and active participation which have become a hallmark of the Fermi family.

A BUSY YEAR FOR DECA

Fermi DECA, 1991-1992, was fulfilling to the Marketing students here at Fermi. The Junior Representatives working with the DECA officers were Robert Neimann, and Adriene Wagner. DECA Store Managers were Jennifer Proulx, Annette Falkowski, Justin Alaimo, and Betsy Mogalowski.

During the fall the seniors successfully sold ads for Traces yearbook and for the football program. DECA members attended a Leadership Conference at Johnson & Wales University in Rhode Island. Another Conference that was attended by DECA students from all along the East Coast, was NARCON, in Boston, Massachusetts. During the Christmas season we had another very successful Poinsettia sale.

Fermi DECA held its own competition to select state competitors. These students attended the state conference at Central Connecticut State University. Winners there traveled to Anaheim, California for National Competition.

The 1991-1992 DECA year ended with the traditional Employee/Employer Appreciation Banquet. Here senior DECA members were recognized for their efforts made at their work stations.

All DECA participants felt proud of what they had accomplished during this past school year.

Eye catching DECA displays illustrate good marketing techniques.

Students Against Drunk Driving

The Students Against Drunk Driving (S.A.D.D.) club is in its fifth year of activity. It was founded by Tracy Bender, a former Fermi High student, with the aim of alerting students to the danger of drunk driving. The club meets weekly. This year S.A.D.D. planned assemblies, informational hand-outs, and several fund-raisers including a bowl-a-thon.

The officers for the 1991-1992 year included: President, Tracy Plourde; Vice President, Karen Flenke; Secretary, Michelle Levesque, and treasurer, Tracey Perkins.

Senate means Spirit

If you listened to announcements and read the posters, you know it was another busy year for this hard-working group. Capably led by President Amy Drapeau, Vice-President Mike Furey and Secretary Jen Tkacz, the twelve class representatives held monthly meetings, beginning in July, to plan for the year.

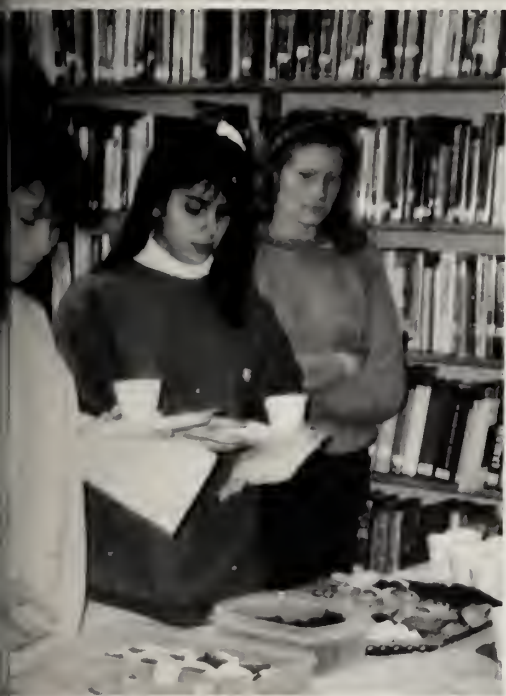

Special events, spirit days enhanced by lunch-time prizes, community service events like Toys for Joy, the canned food drive, UNICEF, dances, candy deliveries for special days are but a sampling of what senate added to the school year.

Senate. Often misunderstood but certainly not unnoticed. Senate continued to be responsible for most of the school-wide activities . . . activities that created spirit and pride for all of Fermi.

Future Teachers' Club

Future Teachers Club conducted a very successful sale of imported earrings during American Education Week. Earnings will enable the club to award a scholarship to a graduating Senior entering the field of education.

In the spring, a tutoring program for elementary students was instituted which allowed members the chance to help in elementary classrooms on a volunteer basis.

A Fall Forum with elementary and secondary teachers was held and members questioned teachers about teaching as a career — its rewards and educational opportunities. In the Spring another forum was planned to include middle school teachers.

Displaying some of the tools collected for Ocotal are FBLA members Amy Warner, E Warner, Tami Stevenson, Latoya Williams and Mrs. Montagna, advisor.

FBLA MAINTAINS HECTIC SCHEDULE

FBLA is a national association of students interested in bringing business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership development programs. In light of the national organization's goals, the Enrico Fermi High School FBLA Chapter enjoyed another exciting and busy year both in providing community service and in developing leadership skills. The results were several significant professional and personal accomplishments for the students.

The year's agenda included such major events as the FBLA Fall Craft Fair and the "Trick or Treat" Street Party in conjunction with Town of Enfield Parks and Recreation Department Halloween Night. The membership was responsible for writing responses to "Letters to Santa" for over 150 First Graders from Hazardville Memorial Parkman, and Stowe Elementary Schools. The membership also conducted a Holiday Party for youngsters at the Connecticut Receiving Home in Warehouse Point. Activities included games and gifts donated by Olym Sales Club, Hallmark Cards, Inc., Milton Bradley, Lego Systems, and Caldors, Inc. Contributions were also made to the Domestic Abuse Shelter in Enfield.

Visits to the Enfield Nursing Home for Thanksgiving and Easter brightened the spirits of the residents as members entertained and served their baked goods. Members also assisted with "Variety Magnifica," a variety show sponsored by senior citizens for the Enfield Food Shelf.

A "Tools for Ocotal" (Nicaragua) drive was conducted in January with students obtaining contributions from such companies as Stanley Tools, Hawthorne's, Kelly Fradet, James Farris and Heldmann Tool Supply, FBLA faculty and students. The Chapter also contributed $150 to "Friends of Ocotal" to purchase nature books. The Chapter ran Valentine's Day and St. Patrick's Day Carnation sales for the "Hole in the Wall Gang" Camp Ashford.

Members Julie Alaimo, Jessica Bailey, and Carolyn Fournier participated in AT&T Collegiate Investment Challenge as part of a simulated investment program with Wall Street. From November 1 through February the members worked to accumulate the largest possible portfolio with an initial $500,000 using an AT&T toll-free access number to buy and sell stock based on actual market prices.

The highlight of the year included the participation at the Connecticut Area and State Leadership Conference where students competed in events relating to business courses and leadership development programs with hopes of qualifying for the National Leadership Conference in Chicago, Illinois. Field trips to local area businesses provided the membership a first-hand observation of local companies in operation.

The year's activities culminated with the Award's Banquet which included the Business Students of the Month and the presentation of a $300 Scholarship.

DEADLINES? DEADLINES. DEADLINES!!

A wise man once said "Knowledge is gained by working through confusion." After putting this bo together, the yearbook staff and advisors heartily agree with this saying. At the same time, however, we hope that this confusion isn't evident.

The confusion started early, with two new advisors, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Palmer, taking hold of the reins. Next, these "resurrected" advisors put together a team of first-time yearbook staff members. Armed with determination and two cameras, one of which rarely worked, staff members began to collect the memories that would become Traces '92.

Slowly, Traces took form. Pictures recorded Fermi Life, Fermi spirit, and Fermi athletics. From their captions added color to the lives of Fermi students, teachers, and administrators. From the pictures and captions, the advisors and staff created the pages that would fill Traces '92. As the staff and advisors worked on, the confusion dissipated, giving way to approaching deadlines, threatening to tear apart what had been created. Slowly, yet surely, the staff met these deadlines and kept Traces '92 together.

With all the hassles, what did the yearbook advisors and staff enjoy? "The day after the deadline," said Mrs. Palmer. To Eileen Ceresky, Chris Houde, and Lori Gauvreau, the enjoyment came "when we saw the finished product." Perhaps the most eloquent of the group, Mrs. Burke, responded "It is taking 200 blank pages and, through the joint effort of many different people, creating the book which will forever hold the memories of the Class of 1992."

MODEL UN: RECI

A mere 500 years ago Columbus, ending his three month journey, discovered America. Today we can reach Europe in six hours and Australia in twelve hours. With world unity came the need for world cooperation, and the United Nations was created in response to this need.

The Model U.N., in which Fermi participates, is the first stage of training for people who want to be involved in the United Nations. Fermi's club of fifty people represented four countries: Brazil, Kuwait, Portugal and Vietnam.

The trip to New York City to meet the delegates of our respective countries was both fun and exciting. Topics of discussion with the delegates included issues of economic, environmental, humanitarian and political significance.

The fun of the Model U.N. didn't end with New York but continued a debate session at the University of Hartford. Many resolutions were including economic aid to the former Soviet Union and other Eastern European Countries, an important issue due to the economic instability of that region. The Environmental Committee discussed preservation of the sensitive environment and Fermi representing Brazil was involved in the discussion. The Human Rights Committee talked about the refugee problem, an issue that concerned many. Finally, the Political Committee debated boundary problems in the world, could deny that Kuwait had boundary problems.

WASHINGTON, DC CLOSE UP

Over the past several years Fermi students have had the opportunity to participate in the Washington, D.C. Close Up Program. Students spent one week in our nation's Capital touring, visiting museums, studying, debating, seeing a play and attending lectures by leading experts in domestic and foreign issues. These students discussed world affairs with people as diverse as the military inside the Pentagon, United States Senators and representatives and professors from the top universities in the country.

Students who participated in the program did not have to be experts in history or world events. They just needed to have an interest in learning and be motivated. This year's participants were: Bryan Carroll, Mike Bonafilia, Julie Cournoyer and Amy Mickiewicz who were accompanied by Mr. Ouellette.

SCHOLARSHIP, CHARACTER, COMMUNITY SERVICE: NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Sabath M. Nigro Chapter of the National Honor Society began its activities in late June with a car wash and never looked back. Fund raisers included lots of sales — refreshments at boys' basketball games, baked goods, and gourmet candy. Profits from the activities were donated to local charities or various scholarship funds.

Though fund raising was important, the most time-consuming and rewarding aspect of NHS was realized in community service. Individually, members were required to perform twenty hours of service, though many members exceeded mandated hours. Service was approached in various and often creative ways from tutoring after school to helping with the town's Adult Education program. Some members worked at the Soup Kitchen, while others helped at hospitals or nursing homes. Some officiated in the youth sports program and a few taught swimming lessons.

The impact of NHS was felt in the community through group ventures as well. As a whole, NHS assisted the Guidance Department with Freshman Orientation tours, worked with the Red Cross in a successful blood drive, assisted at the Hall of Trees Christmas Festival. Members also helped with Field Day at Providence Crandall, and raised money for Senior Graduation. They also visited local nursing homes during December, bringing holiday greetings and somewhat melodic voices to sing the season's songs.

The climax of the year was the Induction Ceremony, and pins were awarded to those who successfully completed obligations. New members also pledged to carry on the traditions and responsibilities of the organization.

The Wonderful World of Stamps

The purpose of the new Stamp Club is to help its members expand and improve their stamp collections. Mrs. Stillo, the club advisor, has an extensive personal collection and provided the charter members with many stamps to trade and share. The present members are concentrating primarily on United States stamps. A note was sent to each faculty member asking if they would save stamps for the club. The response was positive and each week, new stamps came in. The club members have contacted the Junior Philatelists of America and are considering a possible affiliation. Free stamp packets and approvals have been ordered from various stamp companies who advertise in many popular magazines. Stamp collecting is an enjoyable hobby that encompasses many educational facets, including languages, currency, flags, coats of arms, art, politics, sports, music, botany, and especially, history.

Double Dutch

This is the first year Fermi High School has ever had a Double Dutch Team. The group was started late in October by Trecia Boothe.

Twice a week, you will find a group of 8-10 dedicated members vigorously jumping to rhythmic beats of rap and soul music. It provides a form of entertainment while developing a sense of rhythm, concentration, and control. It allows individuals to work out while still having fun. The group also participates in various non-profit fund raisers.

Physics Club

Members of the Physics Club are in the final stages of construction of the model of the Chicago Pile (CP-1) built entirely of Lego bricks. The Chicago Pile was the world's first nuclear reactor which was built under the direction of physicist Enrico Fermi, our namesake. The model is to be donated to the Enrico Fermi Museum at Argonne National Laboratory in Argonne, Illinois in time to celebrate the 50th anniversary in December 1992 of the birth of the "Atomic Age."

In October 1991, at Cornell University's invitation, the model was placed on display at the Enrico Fermi Symposium, an event honoring the memory of Fermi and the scientists who worked with him on the CP-1. Carl Sagan and Hans Bethe were among the scientific notables in attendance.

Upon completion of this major project, Physics Club members will return to more conventional assignments, such as designing, construction, testing, and setting up physics lab demonstrations and experiments.

Ski Club

Almost nothing matches the feeling of exhilaration when you stand atop a mountain, looking down on a gleaming white landscape. It is here, with the cold air nipping at your face, that a true feeling of euphoria exits. Then, after one last check of your skis and boots, you plunge down the hill, speeding up and threading your way through moguls that could send you flying with one wrong move. Every once in a while, you speed over a jump, attempting to soar like an eagle, only to realize how earth-bound you are when your skis touch down again. Then, after a cold ride back to the top, you are ready to attempt another run.

This is the excitement of being a part of the Fermi Ski Club. For six Friday nights, you can feel the thrill and excitement of skiing, with one friend or all your friends. Skiers are also known to fall now and again. So, the motto of the Fermi Ski Club has become "WATCH OUT BELOW."

A SPARE MOMENT

You stand alone, on an alley, looking at the odds. It's ten against one. Lucky, you think, that they stand in a wedge. You concentrate on the king pin of the group. Taking a few steps up, you let fly with the only weapon you have . . . your bowling ball.

Bowling can sound like a James Bond movie, if you use your imagination. However, the sport of bowling is more like the old Greek legends of heroes striving to defeat the Fates. Through concentration and placement, you get the ball rolling. Once the ball leaves your hands, it enters the hands of the Fates. Then, with differing sounds, the Fates proclaim their decision. They can be as stingy, giving you no p or generous, giving you all ten.

The Fermi Bowling Club, which meets on M days, gives you the chance to be a warrior, and t your "luck." In the Bowling Club, you and y friends can build your concentration and enjoy fie competition while having fun. However, if you do have time to join the club, and are feeling valiant, can still grab your weapon, the bowling ball, a march off to challenge the Fates at any one of m bowling alleys around this community.

NOTE THIS . . .

Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Giangrasso, keeps its members busy throughout the year. Once they have built their repertoire, members perform for community groups and stage a winter concert.

This year, as in the past, the chorus kept especially busy in the winter. In December, they performed at the Elks Memorial Service at the Elks Club and in a carol sing at the Town Hall. December 4th was the Annual Winter Concert held in the Fermi Auditorium. Soloists were: David Russell, Jenn Forino, Jess Torrant and Erin Verrengia. Also in December, they participated in decorating Christmas trees for charity at Nassau's Furniture Store. Featured singers were: Jenn Forino, Jess Torrant, Katy Wittmer and Jess Barone, Erin Verrengia, Christine Abronze and Lisette Thompson.

Auditions for All-State Chorus took place in January. The Eastern Regional chorus performed at Jorgenson Auditorium at UCONN on January 18. David Russell, Jenn Forino and Danielle Lussier represented Fermi in this concert.

Fermi's chorus is one of which we are all proud.

CURTAIN UP . . . . .

Places! Quiet! Curtain! After these words are "spoken" behind the curtains an audience sees a finished work. To the players, however, these words simply mean a new "stage" in their work.

This year the Fermi Lamplighters performed "It Was a Dark and Stormy Night." The work the audience saw was fourteen people on stage. The work involved to make this a successful production required the input of over forty people.

Work, however, began with the cast memorizing lines and stage directions. Meanwhile sets were being designed and built. Lighting and sound crews got everything ready to create effects and to insure enjoyment by the audience. When everything was ready, the curtain went up. And through the efforts of many people, a play came alive for the enjoyment of the audience.

The Fermi Lamplighters will teach anyone who wants to join the feeling of satisfaction of working hard to insure that the audience is entertained.

ONLY YESTERDAY

As Fermi Freshmen we were lost, confused, not knowing where to turn or how to act.

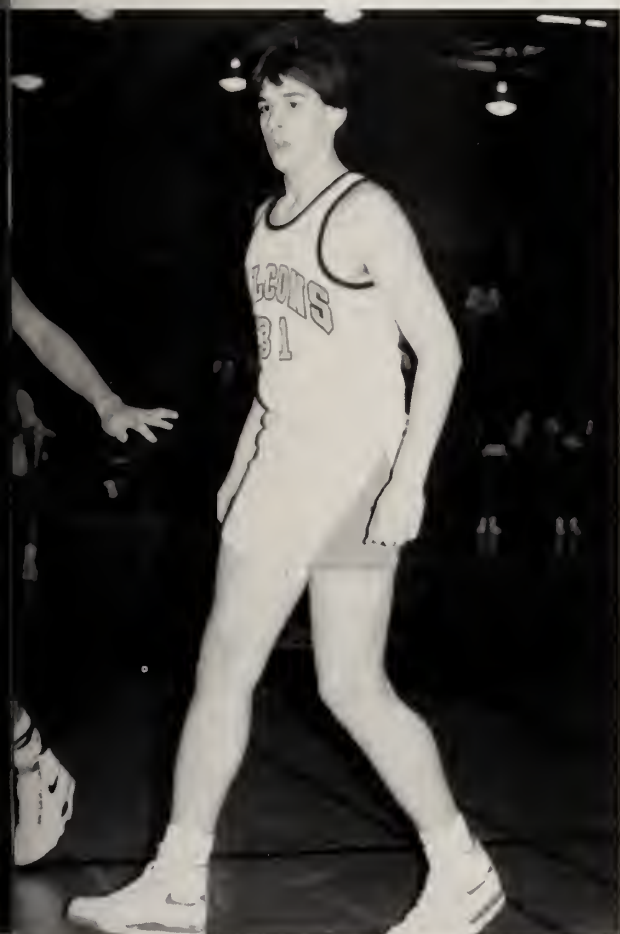

Laughter brought us together. It was innocent, and so were we. "Give me a break!" "Grow up, dude!"

How we've changed, maturing to young adults. Now we're moving on.

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe.

Just remember "The way we were" . . . how we laughed, cried, and grew.

HELP FOR OUR FRIENDS IN OCOTAL

For the past five years, Fermi students have provided much needed assistance to their fellow students in impoverished Ocotal, Nicaragua, where families with young children are often forced to choose between sending their children to school or to work, due to the economic situation. The generosity of the Fermi Family has enabled many children to remain in school. At Fermi, we became familiar with the people of Ocotal and their needs through videos, letters and photos obtained from the Connecticut "Friends of Ocotal" organization, coordinated by Planetarium Director and P.O.P.S. Advisor James Yankee and his wife, Eileen.

Every year, we are pleased to receive word and photos showing the receipt of our gifts by the children of Ocotal. These help us to become better acquainted with the children and serve to assist us in planning future projects. Among the projects completed by Fermi students for Ocotal this year were:

- (1) F.B.L.A.: Collection of funds to purchase a beautiful set of books and audio-visual aids for the Hermanos Zamora Elementary School.
- (2) Student Senate: Homeroom Collection of over 700 bars of soap to help fight the spread of cholera.
- (3) Girls Soccer Team: Donated and signed a soccer ball for the Instituto (High School).
- (4) D.E.C.A.: "Pennies for Ocotal" annual fundraiser netted $80. for a new volleyball and net for the Instituto. D.E.C.A. members signed the ball as an additional expression of friendship.
- (5) F.B.L.A.: "Tools for Ocotal" Collection provided over $500. of new and used carpentry and garden tools.
- (6) Senate/P.O.P.S.: "Pencils for Ocotal" homeroom collection resulted in over 3,500 festively wrapped pencils, crayons, rulers, etc. These became greatly treasured gifts to Ocotal schoolchildren.
- (7) Choir/Chorus: Winter Concert video sent to Ocotal featuring a special song, "Voices That Care," dedicated to the people of Ocotal.
- (8) Spanish Language Classes: Letters, greeting cards and small gifts for Ocotal students.
- (9) Physics Classes: Homemade musical instruments for use in Ocotal schools.
- (10) Double Dutch Jump Rope Club: Through a pledge program and fun activity, raised funds to help with shipping costs.
- (11) Environment and Model U.N. Clubs: Drafted a petition and collected over 200 signatures in an effort to save 450,000 acres of rainforest in Nicaragua.

The students and teachers in Ocotal will long remember the thoughtfulness and caring of the Fermi Family. Fermi students are to be commended for their altruistic efforts to provide humanitarian aid to the people of Ocotal. These projects have made a difference!!!

Repeat Performance For J.V. Volleyball

Fourteen very talented young women who played on the 1991 J.V. Volleyball team enjoyed another winning and wonderful year. Working very hard, the team continued to succeed. The 14-4 record included an undefeated status (8-0) until the team played Windham. After that, only three more losses were recorded. The Most Valuable Player was junior Tracy Blake.

Ms. Quartin congratulated the team and reminded them of their goal — MAKING VARSITY in August of 1992.

J.V. Field Hockey Impressive

Without making any cuts, the J.V. field hockey team carried 25 girls on their roster this year. With the blend of the talented returning players mixed with an enthusiastic group of newcomers, the J.V. team comprised an impressive 11-2-3 record, one of the best ever at Fermi High. Over the last 10 games of the season they were 8-0-2.

Led by captains Jess Pedersen, Kelly Hart, Kaley Johnson and Adriene Wagner, the Fermi J.V. girls were known as one of the stronger J.V. teams in the league as recognized by many coaches and officials. Nine different athletes scored throughout the season coming up with a total of 23 goals. Adriene Wagner led the defense in goal with 13 shutouts.

With these kinds of athletes, the Fermi field hockey program will continue to be successful.

As the sun rose, and the frost disappeared from the field, on charged the Enrico Fermi Falcons. It was a perfect fall day, and the smell of victory filled the air.

The opposing team lined up face to face, and the game began. Helmets collided, players growled, and the crowd roared.

Fermi won a 34-22 victory over Enfield High. Two all time receiving records were broken. Dan Dumoulin broke both career and season receiving records beating out the previous records of Marcel Dumas and Mike McNulty. His game performance propelled him to the All-State level.

Junior David George played an outstanding game running a total of 104 yards. Freshman Cory Ferguson turned in a noteworthy performance running 87 yards.

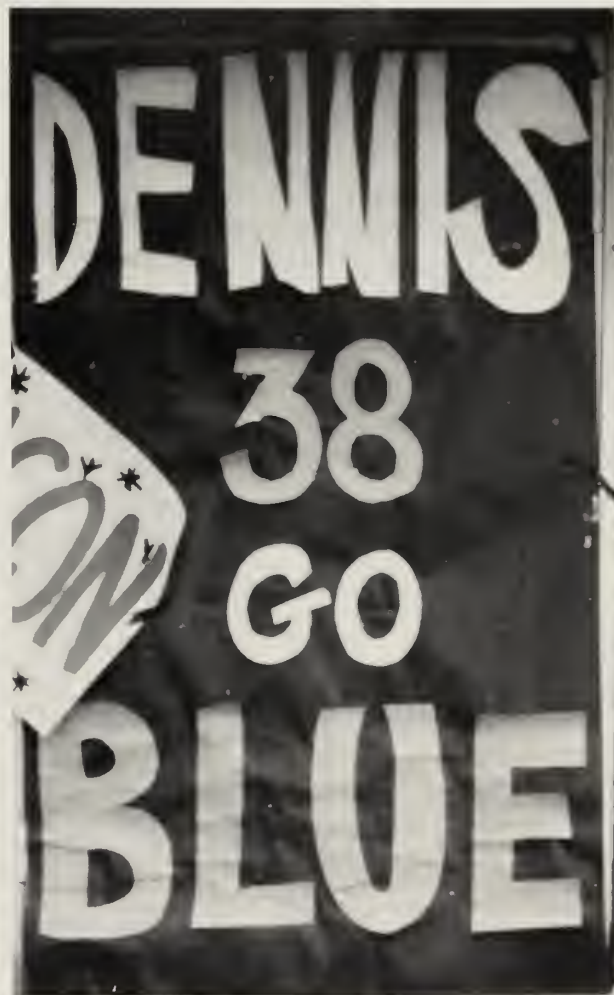

The resulting performances of both teams led to an impressive 34-22 win for Fermi. The thrill of victory was an enticing appetizer for Thanksgiving Dinner.

The annual Trick or Treat Street at Fermi High again was brought to life October 31, 1991. The halls and classrooms were transformed into a spooky Halloween environment where over 300 children joined in the fun. The Parks and Recreation Department with the help of Future Business Leaders of America made the night a great success. There were games, a magic show, a costume contest and trick or treating to keep everyone happy. All who were involved had a great time helping and the children had a safe night filled with fun.

FLOATS: FINAL RESULT MAKES A LASTING IMPRESSION

It took time and coordination in order to get this year's float committees to work together and complete their floats on time. Freshman float builders had to rely on the experience of the sophomores to put their award-winning float on the road. The time and effort paid off as seen by the end results pictured here.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field Hockey Has Winning Season

This was the year to "MAKE IT HAPPEN," and the 42 members of the field hockey program did just that! The Varsity successfully defended their CCC-E title and made a return to the State Tournament Quarter-Finals. The Junior Varsity compiled a season record of 12-2-2 under the capable coaching of four-year coach Amy Romano. The team's captains were Jess Pedersen, Kaley Johnson, Kelly Hart and Adriene Wagner. The Varsity concluded their highly successful season with an 11-5-2 record under the leadership of Kasia Olechnicki, Chris Pohorylo and Kim Bender.

Kasia and Chris became the third and fourth players in Fermi history to be selected to the First Team, All-State Class L Field Hockey Team. Congratulations to ALL on an exceptional season.

If it is true that "success breeds success," the field hockey program can look to the future with great anticipation. Best wishes to Seniors Chris Pohorylo, Kasia Olechnicki, Kim Bender, Melissa Brassard, Michele Stebbins, and Allison Ladd and their plans for the future; we will miss them but they have left behind memorable moments for all of us.

Defeat of Town Rival Caps Football Season

The Fermi Varsity Football team finished their 1991 season with a 3-7 record. However, their solid work ethic and serious commitment allowed them to play tough against every team for the good part of each game.

After dropping their opener to a strong Springfield Central team, the Falcons rebounded with an exciting come-from-behind win over Plainville. They then crushed Weaver in game three. Fermi's young gridders followed with defeats to Windham and Manchester by a combined total of 11 points.

Fermi then suffered setbacks to tough South Windsor and East Hartford teams, even though the Falcons held one-point leads at half-time of both games. Hartford Public defeated Fermi in a good game and League Champion Rockville struggled with the motivated Falcons for three periods before securing a victory over Fermi.

The Falcons concluded their campaign with a convincing 34-22 win over rival Enfield.

Individually, quarterback Dave George and split end Dan Dumoulin both had All-State caliber seasons. George tossed 19 touchdown passes and threw for nearly 2400 yards. Dumoulin scored 13 touchdowns while setting single season (1138) and career (1867) marks for receiving yardage. Kevin Chung led the defense, and the offensive line pass-blocked better than any other Fermi team of the past.

Captains Kevin Chung and Dennis Marshall did well in their leadership roles and helped to bring pride back to the program. Seniors Scott Beiler, Steve Burk, Jason Cyr, Brett Lewis, Joe Pedersen, Brian Pitti, Chris Smyth, Rob Sperrazza and Jason Wishart will also be missed.

VOLLEYBALL

A Hard Act to Follow

In 1990-91 Varsity was not only 18-0, but it entered the state tourney ranked No. 1 in the State of Connecticut M-Division. Well . . . ten of those fifteen players have graduated. Well . . .

In August of 1991, 44 young women were ready and willing to begin the year of "a hard act to follow" which also included the league championship.

The result . . . a fabulous effort on the part of 26 dedicated young women, twelve varsity and fourteen junior varsity. And what a treat we had. Three senior, first-year players appeared in the gym with their host parents: Carolina Sperb from Brazil, Silvia Galiasso from Venezuela and Yoshie Abe from Japan. These three, along with nine "Fermites" fought hard each and every day to improve what we needed most — communication.

Fermi continued on to its 10th straight state tourney ending up in second place in the CCC East with a final record of 14-6. AND we also celebrated our fifteenth consecutive year of defeating the town rival Raiders.

Senior Michelle Bouthiette and Junior Nikki Villani served as Co-captains CCC-All League Players from Fermi this year were Senior Yoshi Abe and Junior Nikki Villani. The most valuable varsity player this year was Senior Yoshie Abe from Japan.

CHEERLEADING

Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

Varsity cheerleading is a proud tradition at Fermi, one that is regarded as a three-season sport. The cheerleaders provide leadership and spirit to the school performing for both the football and basketball season. The third "season" is fundraising and competing at summer camp where the team enjoys a nine-year, grand champion tradition. Although cheerleading does not have a win-loss record like other sports, it plays an important role at Fermi High School.

The cheerleaders are proud to represent the team, school, town, and state at the December International Open Cheerleading Competition held in Nashville each year. Dedication and hard work prepare the team for the competition. The support of parents, administration, faculty, students, and the coach make it all possible.

Awesome Season for Seniors

As the 1991 girls' soccer season approached its conclusion, tri-captains Deb Baker, Sarah Lucas and Marty Johnson along with fellow senior Becky Sturtevant led Fermi to its first tournament berth.

The season started off well enough, then came the flu and a series of injuries which caused the team to take a hard look at their chances of having a good season. On October 18th, the team's record was 3-7-1 with only five games remaining. That's when the senior leadership paid off. This, along with the enthusiasm of the underclassmen provided a togetherness, an aggressiveness and a strong desire to win. As a result, the Falcons were 5-0-1 over the last part of the season. The big game was against Plainville. Fermi, now with a record of 6-7-2, had to go against a team ranked second in their league with a 10-4-1 record. In an exciting overtime game, Fermi came out on top 3-2!

Togetherness really became the rallying cry. As one senior player put it, "this is my last year, and I want to go to states!" The team made it. In their first tournament game, the team beat Rockville 3-1. The team finally lost to Manchester, but a Journal Inquirer quote on November 5th sums up this season for the players as it stated, "No matter what happens next, nothing can put a damper on Fermi's brightest season ever."

New Members Add Spark to X-Country

Although the number of runners on the two teams was low this year, it was a very productive season for both the boys' and girls' cross country teams. After the veteran members recruited some new members to the teams, they were able to qualify with team scores. And that's what cross country is all about — TEAM scores.

Improvement is the key to success in all aspects of life, and it is certainly the key to success in cross country. Runners are told that if they work hard, learn to complete and continue to improve, the season will be a success. Every runner cannot win the race, but they can improve.

Both our teams ran very competitively this year. There were no subs this year — everyone ran! And the hard work paid off. The boys' team beat Enfield, and girls tied in the last meet before states. The top male runner was Jon Nipper and Fran Hepner was the top female runner.

The teams look forward to a very successful season next year even though they will be without Andy Wood who will be missed.

Girls' Swimming — Building for Success

The 1991 Fermi girls' swim team finished the season with a record of 3-7. That record, however, does not reflect the great strides made by the team over the course of the season. The girls have closed the gap between Fermi and many of the other teams that we compete against in the league. This slow but continuing success of our program is due to the work ethic of the swimmers. Most notable of these girls are Leigh Cowles and Tracey Cellillie who have been selected as next year's co-captains.

With the likes of sophomore swimmers Becky Thayer, Katie Noyes, Angela Skowron, Irene Wong, Wendy Powell and Freshman Jill Belding, the program will continue to improve both its competitiveness and its record.

All three of Fermi's backstrokers, senior Becky Thayer, junior Leigh Cowles and freshman Jill Belding, made states this year. Leigh, Katie Noyes and Amy Drapeau swam the 200 medley relay, while Jill Belding, Angela Skowron, Tracey Cellillie and Katie were tough in the 200 free relay. Rounding out the competition in the 400 free relay were Jill Belding, Leigh Cowles, Becky Thayer and Tracey Cellillie.

We hate to see our seniors Kristen Cellillie, Sam Buss, Amy Drapeau, Chris Michalik, Andrea Wood and Tomoko Koyama leave us, but we look forward to a great future for the team.

BOYS' SOCCER

Boys' Soccer Maintains Competitive Spirit

Although the Fermi boys' soccer team finished the season with only one win, their competitive spirit was evident on the playing field. They lost the majority of their games by only one or two points. The defense remained strong throughout the season, but scoring enough goals to win games was difficult.

The offense was led by Jay Harger and Alan Patterson who each scored three goals, while Jeff Buckley and Brian Zenczak formed the cornerstones of a solid defensive effort. Their efforts were praised by coaches of other teams as well. One opposing coach said, "Our team faces its most serious competitor when it plays against Fermi."

The team hopes to keep the competitive drive and focus it had this year and turn next year into a winner.

Slam, Dunk!

Fermi's basketball season started with high expectations. As the season progressed, however, the team encountered a difficult struggle. The Falcons lost five games by six points or less. The first victory over Newington was a team effort in which four players scored in double figures. The win against Rockville consisted of one of the finest halves of basketball by a Fermi team.

Despite the disappointing season, the Falcons ended on a high note, defeating rival Enfield in an exciting game. Seniors Matt Phelps, Dave Johnson, Jason Kornick, Chris Blake, and Sean Callahan finished their high school careers on a high note.

Fermi Girls Make It To State Tournament

For the first time in eight years the Fermi Girls' Basketball team made it to the first round of the State Tournament led by the starting five which included Lee Smilowicz, Chris Pohorylo, MaryKate Blanchfield, Annkera Jones, and Vickie Fausel. Outstanding teamwork and lightening speed coupled with the ball handling ability of guards MaryKate Blanchfield, Annkera Jones, and Sarah Erickson made Fermi an unstoppable, fastbreaking team. Chris Pohorylo dominated the backboards, averaging 9.4 points per game. Chris was chosen MVP of the Plainville Tournament in which Fermi recorded a first place finish. The team's leading scorer, Lee Smilowicz, averaged 9.7 points per game, crashed the backboards, and made the Plainville All-Tournament Team. Living by the motto "a good defense is the best offense," Fermi finished the season with 12 wins and 8 losses.

Harger and Stanger Lead Fermi to Gold Medal Year

The boys' swim team had a near championship year. In the C.C.C. East they had a record of 4-1. Fermi lost the championship in the last relay of the Fermi-East Hartford meet. The Falcons came close to winning the meet, holding a 36-24 lead going into diving. The team's regular season record was 11-6.

In the league championships co-captains Jason Harger and Gregg Stanger led the team to a 19 medal victory. Every member of the team won at least one medal. Harger won a gold in Backstroke, silver in 100 IM, gold in the medley relay and bronze in 400 free relay. Gregg Stanger won four medals; gold in the 100 breast and medley relay and bronze in 400 free relay and butterfly. Jeremy Walsh went undefeated in the 200 freestyle in league meets. Jeremy won the gold in the 200 free, bronze in the 500 and 600 free relay.

A Winning Combination

In the past the Fermi hockey team has demonstrated very effectively what it takes to win — skill, stamina and teamwork. These factors have led the team to a berth in the state championships during three consecutive seasons.

This year the team entered the state tournament for the fourth year by compiling a record of 12 wins and 8 losses. However, in a well played game, the team lost to Greenwich High School.

As the 1992 season ends, and the pads are put away, the future of Fermi's hockey team is bright. With a large number of returning players and a new young pool, the winning tradition should continue into the 1992-93 season.

Experience Pays Off

The Fermi Wrestling team ended their season with a bang placing third in the New Fairfield Team Tournament on February 8. They also placed second at the Somers Tournament on December 21, and the Monument Mountain Tournament on December 28.

The team unfortunately loses seven seniors. Those departing include captains Jeremy LaRusso, Steve LeBlanc, Bill Manning, and Bill Simpson. They also lose seniors Dan Bachelor, Scott Beiler, and Fernando Ortiz.

At the Class L's on February 21 and 22, six people placed in the top fourth. Placing first was Luther Underwood; second, Bill Simpson; third, Chris Rushford, Bill Manning and Steve LeBlanc with Jeremy LaRusso placing fourth. After the Class L Tourney, the team moved on to State Opens and went on to do well in the New Englands.

Fermi will rely on junior Chris Rushford to lead the team to another victorious season next year.

The Measure of a Man

Not — "How did he die?" But — "How did he live?"

Not — "What did he gain?" But — "What did he give?"

These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not — "What was his station?" But — "Had he a heart?"

And — "How did he play his God-given part?"

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?"

Not — "What was his church?" Nor — "What was his creed?"

But — "Had he befriended those really in need?"

Not — "What did the sketch in the newspaper say?"

But — "How many were sorry when he passed away?"

A TRIBUTE

o Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Palmer,

This little page is our tribute to you, the movers and shakers of Traces '92. We entered the yearbook staff with o knowledge of where to start. In a combined effort, you took us in. Slowly, you taught us the necessities of reating a yearbook. You taught page design, photography, editing, and other things.

However, some of the most important things that we learned were not taught. They were shown. You showed s how much faster things could get done with cooperation. You showed us appreciation for others and their work, and how to have pride in our work. You showed us how to remain calm even with deadlines threatening to at us up. Most of all, you showed us how to have fun even when we didn't like what we were doing.

Because of the lessons taught, the memories created, and the fun we had, the Yearbook Staff gives you this age and the memories. We know these gifts can't begin to compare to the wisdom of your lessons. We can nly hope that these memories and this page is as dear to you as your lessons, your time, and you are to us. On op of all that, this is our way of saying thank-you, not only as the Yearbook Staff, but as representatives of the ermi Class of 1992.

Promise yourself —

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity
to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best,
to work only for the best and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger,
too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

— Christian D. Larson
